Monday, August 19

On Monday, August 19, the Father had several meetings with members of the Prelature where he commented that young families are a great source of hope for the Church.

After a song was performed at one of these get-togethers, he recalled how St. Josemaria would sometimes pray when listening to songs that referred to human love and joy.

In the evening, he gave his blessing to the members of Opus Dei staying with him at the Manoir, and left at 7 pm to Montreal's airport to catch a 9:30 pm flight to London and then to Madrid.
