My Advisor

I have bad feet and a lot of arthritis, but thanks to her I now have a pair of shoes that I call my “Dora shoes” because they don’t hurt my feet. She is my advisor on these topics.

I should have written long ago to thank Dora for all the many favors she does for me each day, and for all the favors that people tell me about after I’ve told them about her or given them her prayer card. Now I want to acknowledge her intercession.

I have bad feet and a lot of arthritis, but thanks to her I now have a pair of shoes that I call my “Dora shoes” because they don’t hurt my feet. She is my advisor on these topics.

She helps me find things that I have lost and I always ask her to help me figure out how to do things around the house. She whispers in my ear with a great sense of humor. She is a friend who is always by my side. Thank you, Dora!
