

10-Day Devotion to the Holy Spirit

In 2025, Pentecost will be celebrated on Sunday, 8 June. The 10-day devotion to the Holy Spirit is a custom to prepare for this feast, 50 days after Easter.

06/06/2025

The 10-Day Devotion to the Holy Spirit is a long-standing custom in the Church to prepare for the descent of the Holy Spirit in the best possible way.

Blessed Alvaro del Portillo tells us that "precisely because the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity is the one who is invoked the least, the Founder [Saint Josemaria] had a special devotion to him. I can say unhesitatingly that, in his preaching, he was a great herald of the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. He often told me that ever since 1926 or 1927 he had practiced the devotion to the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity very intensely. Every year he followed the Novena to the Holy Spirit using the book by Francisca Javiera del Valle."

Some resources for growing in devotion to the Holy Spirit:

Saint Josemaria's homily "The Great Unknown"

Saint Josemaria's Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Consecrating Opus Dei to the Holy Spirit

Life of Mary (XVIII): The Coming of the Holy Spirit

Topic 12: I Believe in the Holy Spirit. I Believe in the Holy Catholic Church

Pope Francis: Homily on Pentecost Sunday (May 2018)

Pope Francis: "Come Holy Spirit, teach us to love"

Cover image: Wikimedia Commons, used under a Creative Commons license

pdf | document generated automatically from [https://opusdei.org/
en-ca/article/novena-to-the-holy-spirit/](https://opusdei.org/en-ca/article/novena-to-the-holy-spirit/)
(01/15/2026)