Episode 3 - Work and fatherhood - God is there with me

This is the third in a series of interviews commemorating the 75th anniversary of Opus Dei coming to Ireland.

18/03/2023

In this episode, Dr. John Kehoe, who describes himself as an “ordinary” Irishman, explains how his work as a doctor, marriage and fatherhood have been enriched by meeting Opus Dei.

The realisation that his children are God's children first has helped him to be more intentional about his parenting.

He explains how he has grown into his roles by trying to serve and love his wife Jennifer and children every day in small ways.

We discuss how daily prayer and the sacraments are not chores to be ticked off but moments of encounter with Christ and His perspective in a busy day.
