

Wavecrest College of Hospitality

Wavecrest College is the first institution in Nigeria that offers training for women working in hospitality services. It began under the impetus of Bishop Alvaro del Portillo.

02/21/2014

Wavecrest College of Hospitality started in the 80's with the aim of giving professional training for women working in hospitality services. The promoters were convinced that service-oriented professions have a deep influence on families and society. Wavecrest College is the first institution in Nigeria that offers training in this area and has received state recognition. The organizing entity, Women's Board Educational Cooperation Society, received detailed advice from Msgr. Alvaro del Portillo.

---

pdf | document generated automatically from <https://opusdei.org/en-ie/article/wavecrest-college-of-hospitality/> (01/30/2026)