

Losing her job

My sister was given an ultimatum at her workplace informing her that due to the current restructuring, she was about to lose her job.

01/07/2015

Very distressed, she called me and told me the news. I encouraged her to pray to Don Álvaro since it was the year of his beatification. She started a Novena with her husband and continued going to his intercession for several months as she went through several interviews especially at her workplace.

One thing she would keep repeating is that "Don Álvaro has never failed me." Sure enough in the month of September 2014, she received the good news that she would be offered another job within the same company. And she has now started working at her new post. She is very grateful to Don Álvaro.
