Ray of Hope

This month TEWA Vocational Training Centre in Kilifi County celebrates its 12th birthday.

Their most recent video gives a peek into the impact Tewa has made and continues to make in the community around them.

Tewa's main objective is to provide quality education for women and girls in hospitality skills. The Centre also runs outreach programs and are geared towards uplifting the living standards of women and their families, through training in technical skills that will help them to be self-reliant.
