

opusdei.org

Rev. Dr. Silvano Ochuodho appointed as Regional Vicar of Opus Dei to East Africa

Msgr. Javier Echevarria, Bishop Prelate of Opus Dei, has appointed Rev Dr Silvano Ochuodho as Regional Vicar of Opus Dei to East Africa.

10/21/2011

Fr Silvano succeeds Msgr. Albert Pampillon, who is currently undergoing cancer treatment.

Fr Silvano was born on 26 August 1968 in Siaya County, Kenya. He is an alumnus of Aga Khan Primary and High School, where he did his O Levels. He then proceeded to Strathmore School where he sat for his A Level examinations. He then joined the faculty of Engineering of the University of Nairobi and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering.

Upon graduation, Fr Silvano worked at Otieno Odongo & Partners Consulting Engineers before proceeding to Rome in 1994 for further studies. In Rome he earned a Masters Degree and later, in 2001, a PhD in Moral Theology from the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross. He was ordained a priest for the Prelature of Opus Dei in 1998.

Fr Silvano returned to Kenya in January 2001, and since then he has devoted himself fully to the priestly care of thousands of people, young and old, in different undertakings of the Prelature. He has also been collaborating closely with the Prelate's Council in East Africa.

pdf | document generated
automatically from <https://opusdei.org/en-ke/article/rev-dr-silvano-ochuodho-appointed-as-regional-vicar-of-opus-dei-to-east-africa/> (06/25/2025)