02/28/2013

St Josemaría Conference is a half-day event marking 50 years that the message of St Josemaría has been lived in Australia.

St Josemaría Conference will provide an opportunity for Australians to find out more about the Prelature of Opus Dei and the message of its founder, St Josemaría Escrivá. The afternoon conference will tell the story of Opus Dei in Australia, looking at how individuals have encountered the message of St Josemaría in Australia over the last 50 years; its role within the Catholic Church, and the personal impact that the message of St Josemaría has had on many Australians.

The main key note speaker will be His Eminence George Cardinal Pell AC, Archbishop of Sydney on 'The contribution of Opus Dei to the Catholic Church'.

St Josemaría Conference will be hosted in the Concert Hall of The Concourse, located in the heart of Chatswood: 409 Victoria Avenue. The cost is $37 per person.
