

Getting Home on Time

Here is a favor that I attribute to the intercession of Dora del Hoyo. My daughter was very unwell one day. She lives far away from me, and she needed her husband to come home early, if possible, or on time from work, but he had an important task he had to complete.

Here is a favor that I attribute to the intercession of Dora del Hoyo. My daughter was very unwell one day. She lives far away from me, and she needed her husband to come home early, if possible, or on time from work, but he had an important task he had to complete.

I prayed to Dora that either the task would be completed quickly or that it would have to wait until the next day. Fortunately, it turned out that the task could wait until the following day, and my daughter's husband was able to get home on time to look after her.
