

Isidoro dismissed the case!

I wish to relate a favor granted by Isidoro. On Wednesday 4th at around 10.00 pm, a friend, Chinwe, calls me and says she is at the airport waiting for the driver I had sent to collect her.

The driver was actually at the airport, but they could not find each other. Eventually, they did meet, but unfortunately, the driver, due to a confusion, was intercepted by the police and charged with obstructing traffic. Chinwe and the driver tried to plead with the police man but to no avail. The driver was summoned to appear in court at 8.00 am today.

When I spoke to Chinwe then, I decided to say three prayer cards to Isidoro that the whole issue would be sorted out.

Today, which was the day of the court case, the driver appeared at the court as was summoned, but the police officer was nowhere to be seen. He waited the whole morning and eventually spoke to the registrar, who dismissed the case due to the failure of the police officer to show up at the courtroom.

This morning, I had prayed once again three prayer cards to Isidoro, requesting him either that the case be dismissed or if we are to pay a fine for the offence, it may please not be too exorbitant. Isidoro chose to dismiss the case! I am grateful to him for this favour.
