My wife got sick with a cold that evolved into something more serious after a few weeks had passed. The doctors that attended to her weren't managing to get her well again. My wife's condition turned grave, and I prayed to Dora del Hoyo, asking her to help me find a doctor that could provide the right treatment to my wife. I asked friends for help, and in a few minutes, one of them mentioned to me the name of the doctor who is now treating my wife. My wife is finally recovering. As I have the same surname as Dora, I refer to her affectionately as "my aunt Dora" and thank her very much.
