

opusdei.org

My Damascus Experience

"I decided to join the Work after Christmas (the day was 3rd January 1968), and obviously, I have no regrets till date."

08/08/2023

Chantal's story assures us that Christ listens to our innermost desires; Chantal, who was feeling miserable at the thought of celebrating her eighteenth (18th) birthday without the warmth of her family, got a surprise birthday cake on her first visit to a nearby Opus Dei centre.

There, she found a home away from home.

St. Josemaría challenges us, "Many great things depend, don't forget this, on whether you and I live our lives the way God wants."

pdf | document generated automatically from [https://opusdei.org/
en-ng/article/my-damascus-experience/](https://opusdei.org/en-ng/article/my-damascus-experience/)
(03/07/2025)