Prelate of Opus Dei Appoints New Vicars

Monsignor Mariano Fazio has been appointed as Auxiliary Vicar; Rev. Antoni Pujals as Vicar General; and Rev. Jorge Gisbert as Central Vicar Secretary.

05/16/2019

With a date of 14 May 2019, the Prelate of Opus Dei has appointed Mariano Fazio (Buenos Aires, Argentina, 1960) as Auxiliary Vicar, and Rev. Antoni Pujals (Terrassa, Spain, 1955) as Vicar General of the Prelature. Rev. Jorge Gisbert (Alcoy, Spain, 1969) will be the new Central Vicar Secretary.

Monsignor Fernando Ocáriz has appointed the new Auxiliary Vicar according to what is established in number 134§1 of the Codex iuris particularis Operis Dei (Opus Dei's Statutes), that is, by free initiative and after consulting the General Council and the Central Advisory of the Prelature, to assist him in the government of Opus Dei with the faculties delegated to him by the Prelate.
