

opusdei.org

Online Conversation with Prof. Franca Ovadje

On Tuesday 8 March, for International Women's Day, an online conversation has been organized with Prof. Franca Ovadje in Nigeria, on the need for women to take on leadership roles in developing countries.

03/07/2022

Harambee Africa has organized an online meeting with Prof. Franca

Ovadjé on the occasion of International Women's Rights Day. Academic, consultant and author of the book "Change Leadership in Developing Countries," for over twenty years she has been committed to promoting leadership in Nigeria, especially of women. The conversation will be an opportunity to reflect on present day challenges in a continent that is among the most advanced areas in the world with respect to the presence of women in public life.

The meeting will be held in English on Tuesday 8 March 2022, from 17:00 to 18:00 (Central European Time) [11 am to 12 pm, New York time]. Simultaneous translation into Italian will be available. If you wish to participate, write an email to Comunicazione@harambee-africa.org to receive the link.

Harambee Africa International was born in 2002 on the occasion of the canonization of St. Josemaría Escrivá. It seeks to support African entities and organizations which carry out social activities in Africa in the sectors of basic education, vocational, entrepreneurial and academic training. Here you can find more news about Harambee's activities.

Harambee

pdf | document generated
automatically from <https://opusdei.org/en-nz/article/harambee-interview-with-prof-franca-ovadje-2/> (03/29/2025)