At the end of May I gave up my job to look for one where I could specialize as a psychologist and at the same time earn my living. The first days of June I started looking, and sending my resume to very many places. I got no results, and it was getting towards the end of the month. I began to pray to Saint Josemaria to take charge, because it was the month of his feast-day and as the day was getting close, he had to help me. Then on June 25 I had an interview in the afternoon and on June 26 I had three interviews on the same day. By the end of that week I had a job, specializing as a psychologist, and I didn't have to leave a school where I've been teaching catechism for the past year. I am very grateful to St Josemaria for hearing my prayer and playing with me so obviously: it was June 26!
