

“It is now Christ that lives in me”

Your relatives, colleagues and friends are beginning to notice the change, and realise that it is not a temporary phase, but that you are no longer the same. — Don't worry, carry on! Vivit vero in me Christus — it is now Christ that lives in me — that's what is happening. (Furrow, 424)

June 12

“He that dwells in the aid of the Most High, shall abide under the protection of the God of heaven.”

This is the risky security of the Christian. We must be convinced that God hears us, that he is concerned about us. If we are, we will feel completely at peace. But living with God is indeed a risky business, for he will not share things: he wants everything. And if we move toward him, it means we must be ready for a new conversion, to take new bearings, to listen more attentively to his inspirations — those holy desires that he provokes in every soul — and to put them into practice.

Since our first conscious decision really to follow the teaching of Christ, we have no doubt made good progress along the way of faithfulness to his word. And yet isn't it true that there is still much to be done? Isn't it true, particularly, that there is still so much pride in us?
(Christ is passing by, 58)

.....

pdf | document generated
automatically from https://opusdei.org/en-nz/dailytext/it-is-now-christ-that-lives-in-you/ (04/04/2025)