I want to share a favor I received through Dora del Hoyo: I needed to send some documents that I first needed to scan, and I could not get the scanner to work properly. I tried multiple times to get it to work, with no luck. Then I remembered that Dora had done me a similar favor a while back, so I asked her for help. I tried again, and it worked perfectly - I was able to send my documents without a problem. Thanks, Dora.
