“May we rely more on you, Lord, and less on our own strength. And when we experience our own weakness, help us to be happy, knowing that you have chosen us with this weakness, because you love us.” (Homily, 23 January 2020)

“The Work belongs to everyone. Therefore, when you pray for the Father, whoever he may be, realize that you are praying for something that is very much your own.” (Rome, 23 January 2020)
