I want to write about a small favor that Dora did for me today. A week ago, I bought a pair of shoes. I had only worn the shoes four times before they broke. Today I went to the shoe store to tell them what had happened, and I prayed to Dora. I asked her to help get the problem fixed quickly and at no additional cost. And that is what happened! As soon as I told the clerk about the problem, he was very apologetic and assured me that the shoes would be repaired in a few days.

Although this is a small favor, I promised Dora that I would write it up. Thanks so much.
