Upon whom does the prelate of Opus Dei depend? Who appoints him?

The prelate of Opus Dei and the prelature itself depend on the Holy See: on the Roman Pontiff and the Congregation for the Clergy.

11/27/2007

The prelate of Opus Dei is appointed by the Pope, after following the procedure for determining the person provided for in the statutes of the prelature; these provide for the involvement of the faithful of the Prelature in electing the most suitable priest.
