

opusdei.org

Can non-Catholic Christians and non-Christians belong to Opus Dei?

10/02/2006

Non-Catholic Christians and people of other religions cannot belong to the Prelature, but they can be its Cooperators, if they wish.

Cooperators pray for Opus Dei or help it by means of their work and donations towards the educational and social projects undertaken by the faithful of the Prelature throughout the world. At present, there are Cooperators of Opus Dei who are Orthodox, Anglican, Lutheran, Jewish, Moslem, and Buddhist, as well as people who have no religion.

pdf | document generated
automatically from https://opusdei.org/en-uk/article/can-non-catholic-christians-and-non-christians-belong-toopus-dei/ (10/07/2025)