

opusdei.org

Why do people join Opus Dei?

10/02/2006

People join Opus Dei because they feel they have a vocation: a personal, intimate call from God to place their whole life at his service in the middle of the world. Although there are practical differences in the way they live it out, the vocation of supernumeraries, associates and numeraries is one and the same: to seek holiness in their ordinary lives.

---

pdf | document generated
automatically from https://opusdei.org/en-uk/article/why-do-people-join-opusdei/ (15/02/2026)