

Getting Hired

Job-searching can be one of the most challenging periods of one's professional life. Here's how Dora's intercession helped one person find work then he needed it.

My little brother had been job searching since his graduation from college. After 3 months, he had found nothing and was a little discouraged. I suggested he pray to Dora and we agreed that he would pray to her to find a job within a month. At the end of one month exactly, he sent an inquiry to an important supermarket chain. The following week, he was called in for an interview and now he has been working at that company for the past month. He is very happy and grateful to Dora, so much so that he carries her prayer card in his wallet!
