LATEST

► For Saint Josemaria's feastday, Monsignor Fernando Ocariz celebrated Mass in the Prelatic Church of Our Lady of Peace where the founder of Opus Dei is buried. A small group of faithful participated in the celebration. The Eucharistic Sacrifice was offered for the faithful of the Work, relatives and friends who have died during the pandemic. Here is the full text of the Prelate's homily.

► Did you know that Pope Francis just added 3 new titles to the Litany of Loreto that is often prayed at the end of the rosary?

► In his 24 June General Audience, Pope Francis continued his catechesis on prayer, speaking about the prayer of David, calling it "the golden thread running through his life."

► A new, illustrated biography of Saint Josemaria is being published by the St. Josemaria Institute, with over 300 photos (including unpublished ones), maps, infographics and autograph texts.

► In our podcast's latest episode, Oscar-nominee® Timothy Reckart talks about how to get the creative juices flowing, why you shouldn't read the news when creatively problem-solving, and why it's a good idea to talk movies over with friends after you see one.

► In his June 19th letter, Monsignor Ocariz invites us to ask our Lord for a heart like His, so that we can bring peace to those around us.

► This month, we will celebrate Saint Josemaria's feastday on the anniversary of his death. Check out some clips of his preaching that have just been remastered and can be viewed with a much higher visual and audio quality.

► Do your June recollection at a distance with the June Recollection Kit.

INSPIRATION FOR MAKING GOOD USE OF TIME

► "What more can I do?": As we face a global health crisis, we may find ourselves feeling helpless or at a loss about the best ways to respond or react. What difference can one person really make to improve such a complex situation? The example of Joanna from Singapore shows that knowledge of one's personal circumstances, a network of good friends, and a bit of initiative can go a long way.

► The Creativity of Love: From the Philippines to Argentina and Poland, these stories are just a sample of where creativity at the service of charity can lead us in our current adverse circumstances.

► The "Covid Backliners" A husband and wife team in the Philippines coordinate an emergency supply chain of food and medical supplies to support their local hospitals and essential services. It all began with a simple question: what can we do to help?

► A Wedding During the Pandemic: An uplifting story about a couple who decided to still go ahead and get married despite the lockdown forcing them to reduce their wedding guest list to four people.

► St. Josemaria: Tips For Getting Along: Maintaining family peace is not always easy if you have to spend 24-hours under the same roof. Here's some food for thought from the "saint of ordinary life".

► Ideas for supporting one another and maintaining friendships at a distance.

► Five Remedies Against Sadness. We have all been sad at one point. Is there a trick for overcoming sorrow and recovering our smile?

► Snow-covered Volcanos: Did you know Saint Josemaria spent months in forced confinement during the Spanish Civil War?

► Podcast for young people: Listen to fellow peers who are finding ways to take advantage of this period in the best possible way. Tune in now to Corona: Use it, Don't Lose it.

AUDIO MEDITATIONS

► A selection of meditations by different priests of Opus Dei to "inflame" your prayer, wherever you are.

Looking for shorter options?
