The Annunciation: Mary Draws out our Ability to Love (Audio)

A short meditation by Fr. Eric Nicolai of Toronto, Canada.

03/24/2020

The Merode Altarpiece from the 15th century shows Mary in her home as the angel announces that she will be the mother of God. We can see that the very instant is when she said her Fiat, her yes to God's invitation, because a tiny Jesus is already flying through the air to enter her ear and establish himself in her womb. So that means that the Humanity of Christ not only brings the Divinity closer to us: it makes it an intimate part of our daily life.
