

opusdei.org

"There's a lot of work to be done"

On Saturday April 23, the Prelate of Opus Dei ordained 27 priests in Rome. A brief video with words from some of the new priests.

04/21/2016

Below are the new priests and their countries of origin:

Alfredo Rodríguez Sedano (Spain)

José María Pérez-Seoane Mazzuchelli (Spain)

Vincenzo Arborea (Italy)

Fernando Hernansanz Serrano
(Spain)

Odon Swamotz Wazaka (Congo)

Carlos Iza García (Russia)

Luis Cruz Ortiz de Landázuri (Spain)

Alejandro Muñoz Vizcaíno (Spain)

Mario Medina Rodríguez (Spain)

Michael Nievaes Quilantang
(Philippines)

José Omar Espíritu Castro (Mexico)

Manuel Valdés Mas (Spain)

Julio Agustín Sánchez León (Costa Rica)

Francisco Javier Córcoles García
(Spain)

Agustín Pablo González Alonso
(Spain)

Juan Cruz Bustillo (Argentina)

Manuel Valentini Colomer (Chile)

Albert Penella Mas (Spain)

Javier Aranguren Sánchez-Ostiz
(Spain)

Guillermo Arregui Cussi (Mexico)

John Paul Mitchell (United States)

Kalle Oskari Juurikkala (Finland)

Gonzalo de la Morena Barrio (Spain)

Marcelo José Monteiro (Brazil)

Martin Abonyo Onyango (Kenya)

Michael Joseph Fagan (United States)

José Antonio Cordero Becker (Chile)

pdf | document generated automatically from https://opusdei.org/en-us/article/theres-a-lot-of-work-to-be-done/ (03/11/2026)