

Blessed Alvaro paid my fee balance!

Yesterday I was kicked out from the exam room because I had not cleared my fees. I called my mum but she did not have the money and I also called other donors who usually support me but this time they did not have the money which was around Ksh 7,000/= (50 Dollars).

Coming back home, the priest asked me to pray the prayer card to Blessed Alvaro. A friend of mine asked me to do the same.

Waking up the next day, I could not go for the exam because I had not yet cleared the fees. So I stayed home studying and waiting for Blessed Alvaro's intercession to come to fruition.

Not long into the day, my mum confirmed she had received some money from a willing donor!

All glory and thanks be to God!
