

Guadalupe's Help in Paying Back a Debt

While under pressure to pay a debt, I learned that Guadalupe had been declared venerable.

I would like to thank Guadalupe for her intercession in paying a debt, which was almost impossible to pay due to my low income. For a long time I had been asking God for help selling an estate so I could pay for it, while the bank was trying to bring the case to court.

At the beginning of the month I learned that Guadalupe had been declared “venerable”, and I decided to entrust the pending sale to her intercession, as well as my petition that the bank grant an “extraordinary benefit”, reducing the debt by 30% if paid by the end of the month.

I asked that she intercede for me, God willing, and thankfully my favor was granted. I was able to sell the property and punctually pay the debt without having to go to court, putting a long and difficult situation to an end.
